S Rob's War Manual

Chapter 1

My enemies must assume I am prostrated before them a broken man and that they have won the war with the banning of 748 of my books on what seems to be all sites and countries. What they do not realise is that I was never fighting a war just doing my own thing: now I am fighting a war. By magick its going to be quite a wonder to behold. I never tried to turn their religious followers into occultists: them into me. But my dears this has changed. Therefore as I find myself at war this is a war manual for occultists: and all magical practitioners or simply those who desire free speech which sadly seems to have gone. This book is made as simple as can be: but not more. I have been inspired by the world war 2 manuals that helped to uphold freedom and stop the spread of intolerance and their approach may do so again as inspiration for this occult manual. First things first this manual needs to be spread: it need to reach as many of the right people as it can. This means you should feel free to translate it into any language you want give it to who you want because this is a war and so S Rob: the most prolific occult author and now the most banned: is transformed into a sort of magical guerilla fighter.

Do not think of coming for me my enemies its too late for that because some of us shall be coming for you. You shall be laid to waste before us but more than that you shall find more of me than you could imagine. I will be in the places I am not supposed to be, the middle eastern countries where even my subject is forbidden, the church or religious institution, all the spots you call home and safe from me is where I shall be. You shall be swimming in me my dear enemies. Your gods shall not save you because they are too weak, less than the force of magick itself or why would you forbid its practice?

But on a more practical note dear reader we shall learn the methods you will need. Firstly we need to recognise that we are not all perfect, we have weaknesses and we must train to lessen these and strengthen our strengths. We are simply looking for an acceptable level. But my dears in WW2 Britain sent to war many that were not really fit for it and yet with the help of our allies we won and saved the world. The practical aspect is not to assume you are stronger than your enemy, or faster, or more accurate. More ruthless yes, we shall become very ruthless. It is all about the use of the correct method. We shall be fit if we are able, but there are many roles to play and we play to our strengths. If a man is in a wheelchair he can still be useful and help spread the word but would not be at his strongest in hand 2 hand combat. Just as the intelligence agencies in the UK now hire disabled people so we do not discriminate. Indeed the gathering of intelligence is most useful to us. But remember the key rule you do not need to come to me to decide what to do: you have autonomy and unless you are alone should organise yourself into a cell structure. This means a number of members: the number is of your choosing: with one member contacting people to set up another cell: only one member has contact with them, and they do the same. One person may set up multiple cells and if this member dies and does not pass the information alone that cell must function alone. This will make any people who set up a cell coven difficult to attack because one cell being destroyed only destroys that cell not all cell covens.

I do not have the space here to detail how to recruit but anyone who is interested in magick or freedom of speech is a possible. In fact militaries have written many good manuals on recruiting people for such purposes. But remember violence is not key here it will achieve less than expected. No we fight through ideas and the spreading of them. We spread information of the occult as widely as we can do safely: we are playing the long game. We will actively try and recruit occultists not simply be available for those interested. This is what we did in the past: I did it along with you and got 748 of my books banned worldwide. It is not a good strategy they made this way we merely fight it. No one wanted tolerance more than us but this seems to be over. Maybe through our actions a more tolerant world can manifest: I hope it does. We fight for minds.

But fighting for minds does not mean we should not keep fit: we should. But here it is perhaps best to not try and all be the same like militaries. The thing is you all have your strengths and weaknesses and if I told everyone to do a particular sort of exercise then anyone injured in the wrong way would not be able to take part: or would get more injured. If injured people can take part in the Inventus games and the disabled can take part in the Paralympics then they surely can be a part of this too. Plus patterns become good ways to be predictable. But training methods do exist. One popular method used by some criminal gangs is to simply fight each other with any technique they want: but without harming each other so not with full power. Once this has been done some dummy knives are used to practice attacking, counter attacking and disarming. Take any technique you have to this or none at all you will pick a lot up from each other. If alone simply shadow box with your methods: this can include shadow grappling. However practice any martial art or fighting are you want: or not as you desire.

If you are really stuck the old WW2 manual Get Tough is useful. I would recommend the YouTuber Tommy Moore to help you learn WW2 style combatives: he also teaches Bartitsu a Victorian style of self defence. As for fitness if you really have no idea try and learn the street gang methods of fitness that you can find on the internet: do your research but do something that you: and anyone you know: can do. Many of these are usually bodyweight exercises because they need agility to be able to run away when needed. If you want to use weights do so but remember to try and maintain or improve agility: you might need it. But if you need to practice physio therapy exercises anything, yoga, running, as long as you keep your body fit in a way that fits you. I myself as a 50 year old like resistance bands alongside other forms of exercise, some will not. There is no such thing as too old to get involved. Our enemies will restrict the rights of the old alongside those in their prime: and younger even.

I also recognise that some people may find certain forms of movements in athletic or fighting methods difficult or possibly damaging. Find what you can but the method named Gutter-fighting used in WW2 invented by W.E Fairbairn seems reasonable well adjusted to many disabled people as well as the more able and can be adapted further without problems. But remember this method relies on attack not defence. You must cheat better than your opponent and take him out of a fight before there is one: you attack first. By attacking first you simplify winning greatly in real fights; especially if you do not want him, her or them. If you want to practice with weapons use what weapons are available and are effective. If machetes are everywhere learn to use these. Different blades need to be used different ways, a knife with a sharp point may be used to cut or stab whereas a cut throat razor can only cut. It is not all about you the weapon has its own characteristics.

But remember never fight fair because they will not fight you fair: cheat better, cheat first and attack with ruthlessness. But firstly and foremost this is an intelligence war: a war for minds. But being prepared gives us confidence and also we should be prepared.

But most of all look innocent, keep your job if you have one. If you need to raise money to help you distribute information or train others.

A good way to increase numbers is not just the sharing of this book but the forming of cell coven because every cell coven also has a mystery school; a secret school that trains people in the occult: the art of real magick. If you choose you can also train them in hand 2 hand combat and fitness methods but this may be a little early as they can learn this when they: or choose to: join a cell coven. You can train together or individually: or both. But the solo occultist is still valuable and if you cannot gather more people distribute this book and what is in here as best you can: you are still valuable working alone perhaps at times more so because it is even more difficult to shut down an army of individuals working for the same aim as a world filled with a cell structure: cell covens.

Remember

1. Stay fit
2. Learn to fight
3. Spread information on free speech and the occult
4. Recruit others to do the same

Chapter 2

Things can get rough: so bad can they get? They can get very bad. I myself was kidnapped: by one group: got out and then was pharmacologically tortured by the police later on: this was when I holidayed in Brazil and I am banned from ever entering the country. This is an extreme example and a good reason for many of you to stay silent and be unnoticed. My job is sort of to be noticed so rather difficult. Torture is difficult to deal with and do not expect counselling because in my experience such things strangely are not available when its an occultist on the sharp end. Being tortured is the worst thing that will happen to you unless you were perhaps abused as a small child. They will try and punish you for having alternative views. They are scared not because they do not think its real but because what if it is? Also its an alternative view on reality and this bothers them because to them such a basic thing should never be questioned. Life is stranger than you could imagine. On the upside if you do become public as an occultist your life will rarely if ever be boring again. But it is my belief that not just do religious groups not like the occult but also the intelligence agencies want to remain the status quo don't like it too because it could change things and is a threat to the mainstream religions. This is not to say that every religious person is a problem: many are moderate and are fine. However there are quite a number that are not.

We must remember to think of our own safety while fighting for the hearts and minds of the public. I say this because we must bring the fight for the minds of people to them: the enemy. We cannot wait passively and hope they do not delete our subject or kill us: many occultists are killed and tortured especially in certain hotspots. But we must have magick to show people to teach them and this follows shortly. However what we need to do is to realise that fly posting: the placing of posters or stickers places: can be a way of fighting back. Perhaps a magick spells or ritual placed places will help. There are fines for this but some countries have places you can post posters and stickers. The fines are usually quite small because unlike graffiti it is easily removed and does not cause permanent damage: meaning less of a fine and you get to do it again. Don't get me wrong with graffiti unless you are a Banksy it would still get removed just cost more. But you know what while its there it would catch people's eye and help to further our cause.

We have often been accused me trying to convert people and this has never been the case. However since the ban of my books I feel that maybe we should. We shall not step silently into the night of oblivion we will instead walk boldly into the light when our numbers are greatest. It is not a matter of getting rid of the opposition completely just being enough in numbers and reducing theirs where we have enough power to live in the open in the daylight. There is nothing wrong with how occultists or other practitioners of real magick live. We live lives more moral than many priests or other religious people. Some people use religion like a shield meaning they live bad lives but claim higher morals because they have the out of being religious. I do not say that all occultists and real-magical practitioners are moral just that they are no less than average because religion will not make a person born to be immoral into a moral one it will merely turn them into a dangerous fanatic: they are less dangerous and harmful to society as simply an immoral person.

Now we come to some magick for your use and that of any converts you make.

Catubodua Battle Crow for survival

Janus powerful Roman God. Janus you are of two faces and while one gazes towards the past the other does the future and all doorways are yours to control. Janus open a doorway that leads to the realm of Catubodua Battle Crow so that she may come to this place. Janus open a doorway, open it, open it wide and right here and right now. Janus opens the doorway, it is open wide open.

Catubodua Battle Crow your enemies drop dead as you fly overhead come through the doorway and be here with me. Catubodua Battle Crow flies through the doorway and is here with me. Catubodua keep me alive, keep me well no matter what and this is what I ask of you. Catubodua agrees to help and flies back through the doorway. Janus the powerful Roman God shut the doorway, shut the doorway right here and right now. Janus does shut the doorway, right here and right now. So it is and will be.

Now you will learn magick for the similar but complimentary concept of protection: in this case from curses so you will need both types of magick from this chapter. Real magick follows.

Catubodua Battle Crow for protection

Janus powerful Roman God. Janus you are of two faces and while one gazes towards the past the other does the future and all doorways are yours to control. Janus open a doorway that leads to the realm of Catubodua Battle Crow so that she may come to this place. Janus open a doorway, open it, open it wide and right here and right now. Janus opens the doorway, it is open wide open.

Catubodua Battle Crow your enemies drop dead as you fly overhead come through the doorway and be here with me. Catubodua Battle Crow flies through the doorway and is here with me. Catubodua protect me from all curses, all attacking magick and this is what I ask of you. Catubodua agrees to help and flies back through the doorway. Janus the powerful Roman God shut the doorway, shut the doorway right here and right now. Janus does shut the doorway, right here and right now. So it is and will be.

Ultimately we need to be victorious over our enemies and those that would be our enemies. This magick is for this. I feel that victory is sometimes small and not always large: a victory is victory and they are all good and important.

Catubodua Battle Crow for victory

Janus powerful Roman God. Janus you are of two faces and while one gazes towards the past the other does the future and all doorways are yours to control. Janus open a doorway that leads to the realm of Catubodua Battle Crow so that she may come to this place. Janus open a doorway, open it, open it wide and right here and right now. Janus opens the doorway, it is open wide open.

Catubodua Battle Crow your enemies drop dead as you fly overhead come through the doorway and be here with me. Catubodua Battle Crow flies through the doorway and is here with me. Catubodua make me victorious over all who would be or are my enemies and this is what I ask of you.

Catubodua agrees to help and flies back through the doorway. Janus the powerful Roman God shut the doorway, shut the doorway right here and right now. Janus does shut the doorway, right here and right now. So it is and will be.

You will now learn some magick that uses Catubodua for success. I feel this is useful magick because success is not just nice it is helpful to our lives and our cause. Real magick follows.

Catubodua Battle Crow for success

Janus powerful Roman God. Janus you are of two faces and while one gazes towards the past the other does the future and all doorways are yours to control. Janus open a doorway that leads to the realm of Catubodua Battle Crow so that she may come to this place. Janus open a doorway, open it, open it wide and right here and right now. Janus opens the doorway, it is open wide open.

Catubodua Battle Crow your enemies drop dead as you fly overhead come through the doorway and be here with me. Catubodua Battle Crow flies through the doorway and is here with me. Catubodua make me successful, let me overcome any obstacles, make success mine and this is what I ask of you. Catubodua agrees to help and flies back through the doorway. Janus the powerful Roman God shut the doorway, shut the doorway right here and right now. Janus does shut the doorway, right here and right now. So it is and will be.

You have not learned some magick and this will help you and others.

Chapter 3

Things have taken a turn for the worse and it is the case I have been surveilled: probably through my phone and elsewhere by the hacking group Anonymous. They claim to be for free speech: unless you say something they don't like; which isn't free speech. Surveilled other ways too: I am definitely being watched. This could be linked to the banning of my books. For those unaware Anonymous have been linked to hacking the BBC: British Broadcasting Corporation: large companies but in reality work with terrorist groups. This puts me in a way vulnerable position: and those around me possibly. But I am not as out of touch as they imagine because I have my experts too. There is a definite possibility this will result in my death and it seems the banning of my work: and all future work is not enough for them. My life is all I can think they want. After all there is nothing else that is part of the writing in a key way save myself. The lesson here is to stay alert and realise its best for most people to act in the darkness than act in the light. Stay unseen as occultists normally have and you will win the fight easier.

We shall see if the physical surveillance stops soon because often it does when it is discovered: or else they make it more obvious as a way of intimidating you and make it look like being spotted was a deliberate act and not stupidity or at least incompetence. But I move now onto some magick that messes with peoples minds so they cannot perceive you. It uses the inner spirit of mind manipulation and this magick follows right now.

Spirit of mind manipulation for concealment

(Place your hands on stomach touching at the middle fingers)

Inner Gateway you lead within me, into my inner nature and traits: that which is itself a world.

Inner Gateway open, open the way through to the Inner World. Inner Gateway open open right here and right now.

MOVE HANDS AS IF THE WRISTS ARE HINGES AND THE GATES ARE OPENING)

The Inner Gateway is opening, it is open wide open. I summon forth my Spirit of Mind

Manipulation: you who manipulates the mind of others and my own. Spirit of Mind Manipulation come through the Inner Gateway into the Outer World. The Spirit of Mind Manipulation comes through the Inner Gateway into this world. Spirit of Mind Manipulation make it so that others cannot perceive me unless I want them to and this is what I ask of you. The Spirit of Mind Manipulation agrees to help and departs back through the Inner Gateway. Inner Gateway, close, shut yourself right here and right now.

PUT YOUR HANDS BACK AS THEY WERE

The Inner Gateway does shut itself right here, and right now. So it is and will be.

If our enemies cannot think quickly then their effectiveness is greatly reduced: their mental faculties are magnificently wrecked by this magical action alone. Will this following magick to work and indeed it shall.

Spirit of mind manipulation to reduce mental speed of your enemies

(Place your hands on stomach touching at the middle fingers)

Inner Gateway you lead within me, into my inner nature and traits: that which is itself a world.

Inner Gateway open, open the way through to the Inner World. Inner Gateway open open right here and right now.

MOVE HANDS AS IF THE WRISTS ARE HINGES AND THE GATES ARE OPENING)

The Inner Gateway is opening, it is open wide open. I summon forth my Spirit of Mind

Manipulation: you who manipulates the mind of others and my own. Spirit of Mind Manipulation come through the Inner Gateway into the Outer World. The Spirit of Mind Manipulation comes through the Inner Gateway into this world. Spirit of Mind Manipulation make it so that my enemies will think much slower than usual and this is what I ask of you. The Spirit of Mind Manipulation agrees to help and departs back through the Inner Gateway. Inner Gateway, close, shut yourself right here and right now.

PUT HANDS BACK AS THEY WERE-SHUT THE GATEWAY

The Inner Gateway does shut itself right here, and right now. So it is and will be.

Creativity is a sort of mental plasticity and a true genius needs it. I say therefore that this magick will reduce the capabilities of your enemies greatly. Real magick follows.

Spirit of mind manipulation to make enemies less creative

(Place your hands on stomach touching at the middle fingers)

Inner Gateway you lead within me, into my inner nature and traits: that which is itself a world.

Inner Gateway open, open the way through to the Inner World. Inner Gateway open open right here and right now.

MOVE HANDS AS IF THE WRISTS ARE HINGES AND THE GATES ARE OPENING)

The Inner Gateway is opening, it is open wide open. I summon forth my Spirit of Mind Manipulation: you who manipulates the mind of others and my own. Spirit of Mind Manipulation come through the Inner Gateway into the Outer World. The Spirit of Mind Manipulation comes through the Inner Gateway into this world. Spirit of Mind Manipulation make my enemies less creative fog their minds so new ideas do not come to mind nor inspiration and this is what I ask of you. The Spirit of Mind Manipulation agrees to help and departs back through the Inner Gateway. Inner Gateway, close, shut yourself right here and right now.

HINGE THE HANDS BACK FULLY TOUCHING THE TORSO

The Inner Gateway does shut itself right here, and right now. So it is and will be. Your enemies plans themselves will be flawed with this following magick. It is to make your enemy or enemies make mistakes and so sabotages them from within. An enemy who is their own worst liability is already defeated.

Spirit of mind manipulation for your enemies to make mistakes

(Place your hands on stomach touching at the middle fingers)

Inner Gateway you lead within me, into my inner nature and traits: that which is itself a world. Inner Gateway open, open the way through to the Inner World. Inner Gateway open open right here and right now.

Spirit of Mind Manipulation make it so that my enemies will make mistakes and this is what I ask of you. The Spirit of Mind Manipulation agrees to help and departs back through the Inner Gateway. Inner Gateway, close, shut yourself right here and right now.

PUT YOUR HANDS LIKE CLOSED GATES

The Inner Gateway does shut itself right here, and right now. So it is and will be.

This magick helped change religious people into practitioners of magick: or at least interested. Its great magick to use even if the results are not always seen because rarely do people talk about such things.

Spirit of mind manipulation to be uninterested in religion but very interested in real magick

(Place your hands on stomach touching at the middle fingers)

Inner Gateway you lead within me, into my inner nature and traits: that which is itself a world.

Inner Gateway open, open the way through to the Inner World. Inner Gateway open open right here and right now.

MOVE HANDS AS IF THE WRISTS ARE HINGES AND THE GATES ARE OPENING)

The Inner Gateway is opening, it is open wide open. I summon forth my Spirit of Mind

Manipulation: you who manipulates the mind of others and my own. Spirit of Mind Manipulation come through the Inner Gateway into the Outer World. The Spirit of Mind Manipulation comes through the Inner Gateway into this world. Spirit of Mind Manipulation make it so that others will be uninterested in religion but very interested in real magick and this is what I ask of you. The Spirit of Mind Manipulation agrees to help and departs back through the Inner Gateway. Inner Gateway, close, shut yourself right here and right now.

PUT YOUR HANDS LIKE CLOSED GATES AGAINST THE TORSO

The Inner Gateway does shut itself right here, and right now. So it is and will be.

Wealth is a great advantage and so use this magick to be more motivated to be wealthy. Its motivation that truly is half of the battle. Real magick follows.

Spirit of mind manipulation to become more motivated to be wealthy

(Place your hands on stomach touching at the middle fingers)

Inner Gateway you lead within me, into my inner nature and traits: that which is itself a world.

Inner Gateway open, open the way through to the Inner World. Inner Gateway open open right here and right now.

MOVE HANDS AS IF THE WRISTS ARE HINGES AND THE GATES ARE OPENING)

The Spirit of Mind Manipulation agreeack through the Inner Gateway. Inner Gateway, close, shut yourself right here and right now.

PUT YOUR HANDS AGAINST THE TORSO LIKE CLOSED GATES

The Inner Gateway does shut itself right here, and right now. So it is and will be.

Power is important and one with no power at all is likely as not a slave. Therefore work this magick and be motivated to be powerful. Do this and more power shall indeed be yours by your own hand.

Real magick is what follows

Spirit of mind manipulation to be motivated to be powerful

(Place your hands on stomach touching at the middle fingers)

Inner Gateway you lead within me, into my inner nature and traits: that which is itself a world.

Inner Gateway open, open the way through to the Inner World. Inner Gateway open open right here and right now.

The Spirit of Mind Manipulation comes through the Inner Gateway into this world. Spirit of Mind Manipulation make me motivated to me powerful and this is what I ask of you. The Spirit of Mind Manipulation agrees to help and departs back through the Inner Gateway. Inner Gateway, close, shut yourself right here and right now.

OUT YOUR HANDS AGAINST THE TORSO-LIKE SHUT GATES

The Inner Gateway does shut itself right here, and right now. So it is and will be.

You have come to the end of this chapter. There are more to come and so keep going you are almost ready to make a new world.

Chapter 4

I have been followed last night by a grey Vauxhall Corsa: I saw it too many times. I also saw what in the UK is a suspicious vehicle a black car with all tinted windows: in the UK all windows are not allowed to be tinted. The game is afoot as Sherlock Holmes would say. It could be my writings but I also get the feeling that they do not want this book to come out: maybe more than one group. I must watch my step here and its easy to expend resources when things like this occur. So be thrifty if you can: which in the past I have not: because if its very serious it could last a while: usually it doesn't but it can. But this book is written from experience of being followed around and hacked and surveilled going a long way back. I still don't know what fascinates them about the occult and I so much that they follow people and try and surpress it. I say if its that good simply buy the books: it would be sunstantually cheaper and easier. I say if something is that good don't surpress it join them: and the occult is that good which is why they join us all the time. I have probably made more occultists than anyone else in history. They do not understand as an occult author I simply have to make one replacement: one reader who becomes an author or content maker as well as an occultist and it goes one and with this many books written by me I can basically guarantee that there will be loads of replacements. This means that in the future the occult will be more popular: but still probably with its usual cycle of popularity: Partly because of me and my actions. But we all can make more occultists and spread the word. For those in places freer and who do not mind being public occultists they can use video and other mediums to spread the word: like youtube and video sharing sites to increase the occults popularity. But I am not forgetting many people live in places where occultism: and all forms of magick and the escoteric are illegal. This is reality and for these people most of all stay safe.

Survival is important and so let it produce some survival magick that uses Ti-Jean-Petro a mage and dwarf with one leg and powerful voodoo loa. We shall use Papa Legba to summon him and many people think he is Saint Peter. He walks with a limp with walking stick in hand and has a doorway which leads many ways to many places. In fact he walks with a limp because he has always one foot in one world and the other foot in another. Let us get this magick started.

Ti-Jean-Petro magick to survive

Papa Legba he thought by many to be Saint Peter, you walk with a limp with walking stick in hand but you only walk with a limp because you have one foot always in one world and the other foot in another and even your walking stick is a staff of power. Papa Legba you control the doorway that swings many ways and to many places. Papa Legba open the doorway that leads to Ti-Jean-Petro the powerful mage, the dwarf with one leg. Papa Legba open the doorway open it right here and right now. Papa Legba does open the doorway it is open wide open. I summon forth Ti-Jean-Petro come through the doorway and be here with me. Ti-Jean-Petro comse through the doorway and is here with me. Ti-Jean-Petro make it so that I will be able to survive anyhting at all and do so unharmed and this is what I ask of you. Ti-Jean-Petro agrees to help and departs back through the doorway. Papa Legba: he who many think to be Saint Peter: you walk with alimp with walking stick in hand and the doorway that swings many ways and to many place is yours to control. Papa Legba shut the doorway right here and right now. Papa Legba shuts the doorway it is sealed closed. So it is and will be.

Ti-Jean-Petro being a mage has domain of power over anything magick can be used for: in other words everything: he can be used to work magick of all types for anything at all. This makes him very useful and should be used. However don't just use him because I feel we need balance.

Ti-Jean-Petro magick for greater strength

Papa Legba he thought by many to be Saint Peter, you walk with a limp with walking stick in hand but you only walk with a limp because you have one foot always in one world and the other foot in another and even your walking stick is a staff of power. Papa Legba you control the doorway that swings many ways and to many places. Papa Legba open the doorway that leads to Ti-Jean-Petro the powerful mage, the dwarf with one leg. Papa Legba open the doorway open it right here and right now. Papa Legba does open the doorway it is open wide open. I summon forth Ti-Jean-Petro come through the doorway and be here with me. Ti-Jean-Petro comse through the doorway and is here with me. Ti-Jean-Petro make it so that I will be stronger, make great strength mine and this is what I ask of you. Ti-Jean-Petro agrees to help and departs back through the doorway. Papa Legba: he who many think to be Saint Peter: you walk with alimp with walking stick in hand and the doorway that swings many ways and to many place is yours to control. Papa Legba shut the doorway right here and right now. Papa Legba shuts the doorway it is sealed closed. So it is and will be.

To be able to move fast is great. I feel however that we need to realise this magick will make you faster but without training for speed and perhaps agility you will gain only a partial effect. This means if you have the fitness that practicing things like sprints can be empowering to you and this magick.

Ti-Jean-Petro magick for greater speed

Papa Legba he thought by many to be Saint Peter, you walk with a limp with walking stick in hand but you only walk with a limp because you have one foot always in one world and the other foot in another and even your walking stick is a staff of power. Papa Legba you control the doorway that swings many ways and to many places. Papa Legba open the doorway that leads to Ti-Jean-Petro the powerful mage, the dwarf with one leg. Papa Legba open the doorway open it right here and right now. Papa Legba does open the doorway it is open wide open. I summon forth Ti-Jean-Petro come through the doorway and be here with me. Ti-Jean-Petro comse through the doorway and is here with me. Ti-Jean-Petro make me faster, make me be able to move with greater speed and this is what I ask of you. Ti-Jean-Petro agrees to help and departs back through the doorway. Papa Legba: he who many think to be Saint Peter: you walk with alimp with walking stick in hand and the doorway that swings many ways and to many place is yours to control. Papa Legba shut the doorway right here and right now. Papa Legba shuts the doorway it is sealed closed. So it is and will be.

Many people who want to be rich simply want to live well. I feel it is good to ask for what we really want and so here is some magick to live well and let's face it this will make fighting the war for occultism much easier if the rest of your life is comfortable and easier than it would be.

Ti-Jean-Petro magick live well

Papa Legba he thought by many to be Saint Peter, you walk with a limp with walking stick in hand but you only walk with a limp because you have one foot always in one world and the other foot in another and even your walking stick is a staff of power. Papa Legba you control the doorway that swings many ways and to many places. Papa Legba open the doorway that leads to Ti-Jean-Petro the powerful mage, the dwarf with one leg. Papa Legba open the doorway open it right here and right now. Papa Legba does open the doorway it is open wide open. I summon forth Ti-Jean-Petro come through the doorway and be here with me. Ti-Jean-Petro come through the doorway and is here with me. Ti-Jean-Petro make it so that I will be able to live well, to live a comfortable luxurious life and this is what I ask of you. Ti-Jean-Petro agrees to help and departs back through the doorway. Papa Legba: he who many think to be Saint Peter: you walk with a limp with walking stick in hand and the doorway that swings many ways and to many place is yours to control.
